Cyber Smarts– I & II
Preventing On-line Drama
Free Workshop

(Suitable for Youth 12 and Older to Attend With a Parent or Guardian)

April 22, 2010

Adams County Community Center

Basic Topics at Each Session

Cyber Bullying

Sexting

Chat Rooms

Sexual Predators

Facebook

Identity Theft

Identity Theft

My Space

Cyber Smarts I
1:30—3:00 PM

- Where we are today and how technology has brought us into a virtual world
- Know the steps needed to keep yourself and your family safe
- Learn how to protect your identity and keep your computer secure

Cyber Smarts II
6:00—8:00 PM
Pre-Workshop Light Snacks at 5:30 PM at the Community Center

- Where we are today and how technology has brought us into a virtual world
- Understand the darkside of the internet and how to keep you and your family safe
- Learn first hand, from a District Attorney, the consequences of misusing cyber space
- Know how to protect yourself from sexual predators and cyber bullies
- Learn about MySpace and Facebook along with other social networking sites

Presenters:

- Tania Nachreiner Bonnett, Assistant DA LaCrosse County
- David July, Chief Deputy, Adams County Sheriff's Department
- Eric Langley, Ad Hoc Instructor, MidState Technical College
- Jennifer Swensen, UW-Extension, 4-H/Youth Development Agent
- Jessica Ritschke, Hope House of South Central Wisconsin
- Eleanor Bonnett, Facilitator, Representing Grand Marsh Lions
- Edie Felts-Podoll, UW-Extension, Family Living Educator

Sponsored By:

Adams County University Extension
Adams County Sheriff's Department
Hope House of South Central Wisconsin
Grand Marsh Lions